Read, and laid upon the table.

CLERK'S OFFICE, HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES U. S.

February 21, 1844.

SIR: In compliance with the 11th section of the act entitled "An act legalizing and making appropriations for such necessary objects as have been usually included in the general appropriation bills without authority of law, and to fix and provide for certain incidental expenses of the departments and offices of the Government, and for other purposes," which requires the Clerk of the House of Representatives to report to Congress the names of the clerks and other persons employed in his office, I have the honor to submit the following statement, and to remark that the persons herein named have been, according to the best information I have been able to obtain, usefully employed; and that their services cannot be dispensed with, without detriment to the public service.

Blair & Rives, printers.
